Dear Allen:

This is just to confirm that we are looking forward very much to the meeting with you Monday, March 4th, at 7:15, in which you will discuss some suggestions with respect to improvement of the intelligence organization of the government and illustrate them by certain case histories. This ought to be an exceedingly interesting evening for us, and I hope it will be useful to you. I am enclosing some suggestions of people we might ask. You may wish to delete some (the list is a bit too long) and perhaps to add others. Would you like to bring Bob Amory or anyone else on your staff?

Duncan Ballantine is delighted you can see him. I am sure it will be very useful for him.

Very sincerely,

George
